Racing Commission Rule Review

In compliance with Section 119.032 of the Ohio Revised Code, the OSRC reviewed 200 rules during 2008. Administrative rules govern horse racing and affect individuals, businesses and organizations. The OSRC amended 51 rules, rescinded eight rules and adopted two new rules. The OSRC annually reviews at least 20 per cent of its rules to determine whether any specific rules should be amended or rescinded, consistent with the purpose, scope and intent of the applicable statute authorizing adoption of the rule. An effort is made to minimize any adverse economic impact on anyone. All revisions were made following consultation with various segments of the racing industry and in compliance with Ohio Revised Code sections that govern the rule-making process.
