J J Hall, the only Ohio triple crown winner in 2012, was voted the state's harness horse of the year by members of the Ohio Harness Horsemen's Association. J J Hall won $89,730 on the year and all but $10,930 of that amount in eight starts in Ohio. Scott Mogan trained the Ontario-owned 3-year-old by Jailhouse Jesse. The gelding took a record of 1:55.4 at Scioto Downs.

Ohio Standardbred Development Fund Committee Members

Richard McClelland of Zanesville was appointed by Governor John Kasich in December of 2011. He was elected chairman of the committee during the meeting held in December to determine racing dates and conditions for 2012.

McClelland, an active and prominent horse owner, is affiliated with several businesses in the Zanesville area.

R. Kevin Greenfield of Perrysburg was appointed by Governor Ted Strickland in 2009.

The current secretary is a founding partner of a Toledo law firm that specializes in employment and labor law. He is president of Hickory Lane Horse Farm, a prominent harness horse breeder, and a director of the Ohio Harness Horsemen's Association.

Veterinarian Robert R. Schwartz of Washington C.H. began his sixth four-year term as a member of the Ohio Standardbred Development Fund in 2009. He was appointed in 1988.

Dr. Schwartz is a graduate of The Ohio State University College of Veterinary Medicine and is affiliated with Midland Acres, one of the state's foremost breeding establishments.

The OSDF – A Brief Explanation

The Ohio Standardbred Development Fund (OSDF) was created by the passage of House Bill 287 in 1975. The fund receives money from taxes paid into it pursuant to the Ohio Revised Code. Disbursements are made on order of the Ohio State Racing Commission with the approval of OSDF committee members. Committee members also hold public hearings annually on program conditions and racing dates.

The first three committee members were Jerry Kaltenbach (1976-88), Phil Drake (1976-83) and Robert Critchfield (1976-81). Dr. Dick R. Junk (1981-87), Bernard Isaacs (1983-91), Charles Bowen (1987-2001), Walter White (1991-2007) and Robert K. Schmitz (2001-2011) have also served on the committee.

Up to five races leading to a championship may be scheduled for each of the eight categories for 2- and 3-year-old trotters and pacers. In 2012, four legs are scheduled. All divisions of each leg will have a minimum purse of $15,000. Championship purses are estimated at $75,000.

Races must be held at all four commercial harness race tracks. Each is entitled to host a minimum of three races. Tracks must add at least 25 per cent, or a minimum of $5,000, to the purse for each race. Purse money is also comprised of money allocated by the OSDF and nominating, sustaining and starting fees paid by horsemen.

Races for older horses—4-year-old and up—may be scheduled and were held between 1982 and 2009.

Overall, the vast majority of OSDF moneys are allocated to the races for Ohio-eligible horses, defined as those sired by a standardbred stallion that was registered with the Ohio State Racing Commission and stood in Ohio the year the horse was conceived.

A portion of the fund is also used for administration and to promote the breeding and racing of harness horses in the state. The development fund has also contributed $1,240,000 to The Ohio State University for equine research.

The Ohio Sires Stakes is just one series of races for Ohio-eligible horses. Others, along with total purses for last year, are below. Programs highlighted in bold are explained in further detail on the following page. The Scarlet & Gray series of races at Northfield Park will not be conducted in 2012.

2012 OSS Program

Members of the Ohio Standardbred Development Fund Committee conducted a public meeting in Columbus on December 21, 2011. Overall, 18 people attended. Decisions made by the OTRF were ratified at the January meeting of the Ohio State Racing Commission.

Program administrator Doug Thomas estimated the development fund would accrue $900,000 in tax revenue during 2011, approximately ten per cent less than in 2010 ($997,637). Nominating and sustaining payments are expected to decline from $320,650 last year to $208,440 in 2012 due to the size of the foal crop.

The committee voted unanimously to award the championships to Scioto Downs on Saturday, September 8. Championship purses are estimated at $75,000. The first four races (for 3-year-olds) are scheduled at Lebanon Raceway on May 4-5. Races for 2-year-olds will begin at Northfield Park on July 3 and at Scioto Downs on July 4.

After many proposals were discussed at length, the following changes for 2012 were approved:

For one year only, qualifying times in each age, gait and sex category were raised one second and the one-second allowance horses received after racing over an off track was eliminated;

If fewer than five horses enter any leg, the race will be cancelled and connections of the horses entered will be notified. Entered horses will divide all declaration fees and receive points toward the championship; and

The minimum and maximum purse for each division will range from $15,000 and $25,000.

Harness Racing in the Buckeye State

Harness racing takes place at one or more of Ohio's commercial harness tracks throughout the year. A summary of racing dates can be found on page 28. A calendar of live racing days for each track in 2012 is available at the racing commission web site (racing.ohio.gov/trackdates.html).

County fairs host short (one to seven days) meetings during the summer and fall. Ohio has an extensive program—over 65 fairs will conduct harness racing in 2011. One, the Delaware County Fair, hosts the Little Brown Jug, harness racing's most prestigious pacing race. Over 25,000 people witness the sport's best 3-year-old colts at the fair each year. Racing dates for all fairs can also be found at the racing commission web site (racing.ohio.gov/fairs.html).

Harness racing in Ohio is part of a larger racing industry that generated approximately $229.3 million in wagers last year, yielding tax revenue and something more important, employment for thousands of individuals. In light of this, it's obvious the state, general public and those who participate in racing will continue to enjoy the benefits of racing. Simply put, horse racing is a way of life in Ohio.

In addition to Ohio Sires Stakes, owners interested in racing young Ohio-bred trotters and pacers may enter and compete in three other stakes programs with added-money from pari-mutuel tax proceeds:

- Ohio State Fair races at Scioto Downs.
- Ohio Breeders Championships at the Delaware County Fair
- County Fair Stakes at approximately 65 locations.

All races are late-closers. Nominations are not required prior to the year of the race. Nominations for each series of races, in addition to Ohio Sires Stakes, close on Feb. 15. Sustaining payments are due on April 15.

Ohio Breeders Championships are different from other Ohio stakes because only offspring of eligible stallions may be nominated unless owners of horses sired by non-eligible sires pay an additional fee at the nomination deadline. Contact the fair (see inside back cover) for further information.

County fair racing in Ohio begins in June and ends in October. Please contact fair circuits listed on the inside back cover for further information. Several fair circuits may also have web sites or e-mail addresses.

Kaltenbach Memorial Awards

Martin Wollam, among the state's top trainers for many years, won his first Jerry Kaltenbach Memorial Award in 2011 after horses trained by him earned $149,997 in Ohio Sires Stakes (OSS). Dan Noble captured a Kaltenbach title for the second time after driving the winners of $300,532 in sires stakes races.

Horses driven by Noble and trained by Wollam led the other 55 drivers and 106 trainers in money won in OSS races last year. Winners are determined annually by OSS earnings. The Ohio Standardbred Development Fund Committee created the awards in 1988 to honor Jerry Kaltenbach, a founding father of the program.

Wollam, the trainer of eight OSS champions beginning with C'mon Ashley in 1986, sent one postward in 2011, the 2-year-old trotter Count Me In. The colt led throughout and finished five lengths clear, timed in 1:59.

Past Kaltenbach training champions Jim Arledge Jr. and Virgil Morgan Jr. each trained one 2011 champion (Rose Run Marci and Jessica Rayne respectively) but neither could catch Wollam.

Dan Noble recorded a pair of wins on OSS Super Night and the $87,750 in purses won was enough, by $4,234, to finish in front of this father Sam. The younger Noble won both filly trot championships, scoring with 2-year-old Jessica Rayne in 2:00 and the older Rose Run Marci in 1:57.

His father won both finals for colt trotters, Count Me In and 3-year-old J J. Hall in 1:56. Sam Noble III finished second despite gaining $33,750 in purses over his son in championship races.

Ryan Stahl, the Kaltenbach winner for drivers in 2010, finished third.
